ASTF Ambassador

Status definition and objectives

ASTF Foundation is a nonprofit non-governmental organization (NGO) that works regionally and internationally to encourage investment in Science and Technology in the Arab World.

As ASTF naturally belongs to its members, it strongly encourages them to contribute to the development and growth of the Foundation and its related activities.

Currently, ASTF includes more than 30 000 members within the Arab World and abroad. Some of them are “Passive Members” who are happy to receive information about the activities of ASTF and participate in some of them. Others are more “Active Members” willing to contribute to the activities of the Foundation.

ASTF is managed by a Board consisting of 7-13 members. It is important to more involve those who are willing to give their time and energy to support the Board Members achieving the objectives of the Foundation. Naturally, the Board cannot be expanded to accommodate all these “Active Members”

Thus, it is recommended to create a special intermediate status recognizing individuals showing engagement to the activities of ATF has been created as Ambassador.

The status of Ambassador is for those who want to contribute actively, along with the Board team, achieving the Foundation objectives. Ambassador will represent and promote ASTF in his region and/or in his field to expertise. They will be a useful link with members and valuable support to the Board.
